Hi Carmen,

I definitely want to go ahead and withdraw my application. As close as we are to being complete, its going to cost me more to get 2 parts of the deck revealed than it was to submit the daycare special permit and pay for a deck permit combined. Unfortunately, this has become more of a nightmare than it should be. I'm sorry you have come this far with me to reach no result. Thanks for your dedication and commitment to assisting me throughout this process.

The irony is that yesterday the huge zoning sign was posted in my yard. What do we do about that and getting it removed now that I've decided to withdraw?

~Kim

Be blessed.

Hi Kim,

I tried to reach you today. If you want to withdraw, please let me know (an email is fine). We are getting ready to send out notices and finalize the staff report, so I'd like to hold off on that if you have decided to withdraw. I'd be happy to talk with you as well.

Thanks,

Hi Carmen,

I will call you in the morning. I talked this over with my husband and he wants me to withdraw my application. As much as I don't want to lose the money I paid to start this process, I am a firm believer in "everything happens for a reason" and the timing happens to be just right considering the opportunity to expand my daycare.

Hi Kim,

I tried to reach you by phone, but your voice mailbox is full. We are at the point of needing to send out the notices to the neighbors, so I wanted to check with you to make sure you want to go forward to the public hearing on July 29. Please give me a call today.

Thanks,
